

---

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOPS

CLASSES FOR TEENS AND ADULTS

---

Taught by - Laura London, MFA

Email: laura@lauralondon.com

www.lauralondon.com

BIO

Laura London's work has been exhibited nationally and internationally, including a recent solo show at Chimento Contemporary in Los Angeles where her artwork is represented. She is the recipient of two Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority Grants. Press coverage of her work includes reviews and features in the Los Angeles Times, LA Weekly, Huffington Post, Time Out New York and Artillery Magazine. She presently teaches at Otis College of Art and Design and privately. London has also taught at ArtCenter College of Design in Pasadena, Barnsdall Junior Art Center in Los Angeles and many other visiting artist and guest lecture appointments. She received her MFA from California Institute of the Arts and her BFA from University of Arizona.

For more detailed information please visit:

www.lauralondon.com

CLASSES

This four week course is unique in that it is geared toward the interest of the individual student. The classes are mixed level with the advanced students working on their own personal projects, such as portfolio preparation for entrance into school, fine art exhibition and commercial books. Beginning students will be given assignments. This class also includes instruction on shooting, printing, technical and conceptual aspects of photography. All students will receive additional readings and handouts as part of the course.

CLASSES HELD THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

PRIVATE S

Studying one-on-one with the instructor provides the student with the opportunity to develop the skills needed to create a portfolio as well as learn to write and speak clearly about his or her work. This is an integral and essential part of the portfolio preparation and application process.

In-Person – Students will bring the following materials to the lesson: images for portfolio, computer (laptop or iPad for viewing digital images), note taking materials, artist statement, resume, bio and application requirements for each college they are applying to.

Online – Student will send their portfolio (20 images), artist statement, resume, bio and any applications for admittance into college via email to instructor.

PRIVATE LESSONS ARE AVAILABLE YEAR-ROUND.
PLEASE CONTACT INSTRUCTOR TO SCHEDULE.

FEES

PRIVATE LESSONS – most locations
(starting at) $250.00 per hour – initial lesson (2-hour minimum)
$200.00 per hour – series of 5 or 10
$100.00 per 1/2 hour – online consultation

Longer hourly private lessons, in-person or online, and a series of private lessons are also available. In-person private lessons are a 2-hour minimum. Please contact instructor for more detailed information.

<http://www.lauralondon.com/contact.html>

WORKSHOPS – most locations
$480.00 One-Day-2-Hour Workshop (In-Person)
$200.00 1-Hour Workshop (Online) Class
$800.00 4-Week Class 2-Hours each session

Classes are in-person only and include four 2-hour sessions in the darkroom, studio or on location.

WORKSHOPS

A strong portfolio is essential for students planning to pursue a career in photography and art. Students working on portfolios for entrance into college will receive counseling on artwork presentation. Preparation for group and solo shows and working as a commercial photographer will be covered as well in the workshops.

TEACHING BIO

Laura London is a professional artist whose students have been accepted to schools such as California Institute of the Arts, USC, Otis College of Art and Design, NYU, Rhode Island School of Design, Bard College and the School of Visual Arts. She has also worked with students to prepare for group and solo exhibitions as well as others working as commercial photographers.

PAYMENT

A non-refundable deposit of $125.00 is required 30 days in advance in order to reserve a space in the photography workshops and classes. For classes, workshops and privates the balance is due in full at the first class session.

48-hour cancellation policy for all classes, workshops and privates.

Please make payments for the deposit and balance for the class through instructor.

The lab fee is payable by cash or credit card to the darkroom.

STUDENTS WILL BE ENROLLED IN CLASS
WHEN DEPOSIT HAS BEEN RECEIVED.