

Laura London - BIO

Laura London is an artist based in Los Angeles, California working in the medium of photography and video. Her work explores themes of human emotions in experiences such as life and death, which are depicted through imagery. The recent series of artwork analyze issues of identity, youth, and contemporary culture.

Laura London received the MFA from California Institute of the Arts. Her work has been exhibited nationally and internationally, including a recent solo show at Chimento Contemporary in Los Angeles. She is the recipient of two Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority Grants. London has also taught at ArtCenter College of Design in Pasadena, Barnsdall Junior ArtCenter in Los and many other visiting artist and guest lecture appointments. She currently teaches at Otis College of Art and Design.