

ARTILLERY

featuresreviewscolumnscalendarroll callet ceterastore

Laura London, Girl - Black Dress White Backdrop, 2015

TRIO: KATHLEEN JOHNSON, LAURA LONDON, LISA ROSEL

c. nichols project

by Eve Wood ·

April 9, 2015 · in Pick of the Week, Reviews

Trio at c. nichols project is a visual exploration into harmony wherein three unique photo-based artists explore their individual visions while also maintaining a harmonious unity amongst each other. Kathleen Johnson's beautifully mysterious landscapes allude to the possibility of life even in the most desolate of terrains, just as Lisa Rosel's abundantly populated cityscapes capture their own hyperbolic energies. Laura London's elegant images of youth culture also attest to a strangely enigmatic "otherness" where a girl in a striking black dress appears to have sprung fully formed into the surrounding white space. The image, though spare, is oddly electric.

c. nichols project

12613 ½ Venice Blvd.

Mar Vista CA 90066 USA

Trio runs through May 2, 2015